Getting Back on Track Journal

Item #: GB1 | 24 pages | $3.25

Recovery can be a long journey. Getting Back on Track is designed for those times when things haven't gone as planned. If a client is experiencing a setback, this self-directed Journal can help them get back on track and prepare to manage obstacles down the road.

From the authors of Treating Addiction, this Journal is ideal for clients who have recently taken a step back in working toward recovery. You also can introduce it to individuals who are about to leave treatment.

Treating Addiction: A Guide for Professionals

Item #: TA | $51

Getting Back on Track is based on the work of Drs. Miller, Forcehimes and Zweben in Treating Addiction, Second Edition. This widely respected text provides a roadmap for effective clinical practice.
