STORYTELLING INTERACTIVE JOURNAL

Allowing
participants to share their change
stories and review
life lessons

What makes you you? What important lessons have you learned from the stories of your life, and what positive changes have your stories led you to make?

Your Life is a Story allows individuals to read and write powerful stories of change. Authored by The Change Companies®' founder, Don Kuhl, this Journal chronicles a few of his life's successes and failures, then asks reflective questions that invite participants to share their own stories.

Your Life is a Story features Interactive Journaling®, a structured and experiential writing process that engages and guides participants toward positive life change.
