

Transition Skills: Community Transition

The Change Companies® offers an Interactive Journal for offenders moving from incarceration to life in the community. Created for the Federal Bureau of Prisons, this nine-week program is designed to help individuals learn and practice skills to achieve a successful transition.

Participant Journal:

The Transition Skills Journal is organized into nine weekly sections. Each section focuses on a different topic relevant to reentry. Participants work to develop key skills that help them make responsible choices and avoid future incarceration.

- 40-page Interactive Journal
- Permanent resource tool
- Four-color format designed to increase retention and comprehension
- User-friendly format
- Designed to accommodate an open-ended group structure

Facilitator Guide

A Facilitator's Guide has been created as a resource for implementing the Transition Skills Program. The guide is constructed with miniature versions of Journal pages. Instructions, recommendations and appropriate strategies are wrapped around the borders of each page.

- Quick and easy to use reference for facilitation
- Ideal for programs that have time constraints or minimal preparation time
- Highlights key journaling content with additional facilitator information
